The Cardiovascular Care Group Announces Highly Anticipated Dialysis Access Symposium

The Cardiovascular Care Group is providing a platform for experts and professionals to exchange ideas and information on dialysis access and its related issues on April 5, 2024.

[SPRINGFIELD, NJ – January 30, 2024] – The Cardiovascular Care Group, a leading vascular surgery practice, proudly announces the return of their Dialysis Access Symposium on April 5, 2024, from 7:00 AM to 3:00 PM, at the Clubhouse at Galloping Hill in Kenilworth, New Jersey. This one-day conference is a must-attend for healthcare professionals, focusing on dialysis nurses, nephrologists, access coordinators, and the wider community. The symposium has been designated as an educational program offering a maximum of 8 AM PRA Category 1 Credits.

The Dialysis Access Symposium will assemble a distinguished panel of experts and professionals from the medical industry who will share their extensive knowledge and expertise, offering valuable insights into the challenges associated with dialysis access. Discussions will revolve around the latest techniques and technologies used to address the evolving needs of patients, ensuring optimal care and outcomes.

“The conference will highlight the importance of early detection and diagnosis of dialysis access-related issues”, said Dr. Clifford Sales, Managing Partner at TCVCG. “Overall, it will provide a platform for experts and professionals to exchange ideas and information on dialysis access and its related issues.”
